Tour of Versailles

An outstanding estate

The history of the Palace of Versailles starts at the 17th century. It was first a hunting lodge, then a seat of power, and finally, from the 19th century onwards, a museum. Composed of the Palace, the gardens, the Park, the Trianon estate and several buildings in town, today the Estate of Versailles spreads over more than 800 hectares.

Dinner cruise on the Seine

Enjoy classic French dishes in a friendly atmosphere. Marvel at the ever-changing spectacle of Paris's most beautiful avenue, the Seine. A dinner cruise on the Seine is the best way to enjoy a Parisian evening while staying in Paris. You'll see the city's most iconic landmarks illuminated at night, and enjoy a delicious meals and music aboard a first-class yacht.
